The following cancellation conditions apply:

1. Reggio Children and REAIE reserves the right to cancel the Study Group or the in-person professional development in Reggio Emilia with at least five days' notice prior to the start date of the professional development activity, if the minimum number of delegates required for the organisation of the service is not reached. In this case Reggio Children and REAIE reserves the right to reschedule the service, without giving rise to any reimbursement.
2. Reggio Children and REAIE reserves the right to modify the programme due to organisational needs or exceptional circumstances. Changes may be made to dates, times, activities on the day, programme and trainers. These types of organisational changes do not entitle the delegate to any reimbursement.
3. The professional development activity may be cancelled if the health situation in Italy, or in the foreign country of origin of the purchasing delegate(s), requires it due to government measures or regional provisions. To this end, Reggio Children will be responsible for promptly informing all participants of such a possibility, proposing an alternative date to be agreed upon with the delegate(s) within one year of the date initially arranged.
4. Reggio Children and REAIE are not responsible for further costs deriving from any changes or cancellations of the programme in the above-mentioned cases or from any quarantine that obliges delegates to extend their stay in situ. Therefore, the delegate shall bear the cost of taking out an appropriate travel insurance policy in the event of cancellation and/or modification of the travel, board and accommodation

Reggio Children Privacy Request:

Delegates must not photograph and/or videotape inside the infant-toddler centres and preschools of Reggio Emilia. Additionally, photos or videos must not be taken of the presentations as well as of the panels and videos inside the Exhibition area and the Atelier at the International Centre Loris Malaguzzi.

Contingency Payment

REAIE has calculated the fee to Reggio Children as close to the current exchange rate as possible to keep costs down for participants. If there is a fall in the exchange rate between now and when the fee to Reggio Children is paid, a small additional fee (no more than $250AUD) may have to be charged. REAIE is not in a financial position to absorb the additional costs of the Study Group if there is a dramatic fall in the currency exchange.
